

Movers & shakers

● Ralph Guenther joins Pantheon as a principal on its European team from the private equity firm BMP AG. L.J. McKay, who was previously in charge of investor relations for the Quadrangle group, has also been appointed a principal in the group's New York office.

● Lombard Odier has recruited Vincent Duhamel as a limited partner. Formerly the chief executive of Sail Advisors, Mr Duhamel will oversee the group's private banking and institutional investment management business across the Asia-Pacific region and Japan.

● Ed Rosengarten has taken up the new position of head of asset management at Eden Group. Mr Rosengarten was formerly chief of equities with M&G.

● Mercer has hired Dean Cheeseman as an equity portfolio manager. He joins from F&C where he was head of fund of funds.

● Scottish Widows Investment Partnership has recruited Stephen Tapley as a high yield analyst on its fixed income team. Mr Tapley joins from Gulf International Bank.

● Aviva Investors has hired Dan James as head of global aggregate portfolio management. Mr James was previously head of short duration and absolute return funds with Fischer Francis Trees & Watts.

Ed Rosengarten will move to Eden Group

● SRL Global, the technology advisory group, has appointed Robin Ellison, formerly chairman of the National Association of Pension Funds, to its executive advisory board.

● André van den Heuvel joins the management board of ING Investment Management in May. He bore responsibility previously for BlackRock's business development in the Benelux countries.

● Pictet Asset Management has recruited Roman Gaiser as head of high yield and Andres Sanchez Balcazar as co-head of the global and regional bond team. Mr Gaiser joins from Threadneedle Asset Management, and Mr Sanchez Balcazar from Western Asset Management.